

CTEDC Board of Directors

The economic development board consists of a very diverse group of local business people who have business experience locally, nationally, and internationally in a variety of professions. Regardless of your unique circumstance, this EDC board has the experience to provide you with the support you will need to see your business venture become a reality.

ROBERT COBB, CHAIRMAN

Born and raised in Comanche, Texas, Robert attended Southwest Texas State University, returning to Comanche because of his strong belief in the people of Comanche. In 1979, Robert and wife Dawn purchased an appliance sales and repair business. Robert has a vested interest in the community, having served on the Comanche Hospital Board, and is a board member of the Comanche Housing Authority, the Comanche Airport Board, and is mayor pro-tem of the City Council.

CRAIG HILL, SECRETARY/TREASURER

Craig Hill was raised in Comanche and after a brief time away moved back in 1987 to work at Central Texas Energy Suppliers before purchasing it and other propane businesses as well. As an active member of the community, he has previously served on the City Council, Chamber of Commerce, and has been a Director on the EDC board now serving his third term. He resides in Comanche with his wife, Stephanie, and children Grayland and Grayce where he enjoys raising cattle, hunting and fishing.

ROYCE LUBKE, VICE-CHAIRMAN

Mr. Lubke grew up on farming and ranching operation in Comanche County. He graduated from Comanche High School and then earned a degree in Chemical Engineering from Texas A&M University in 1973. He worked in the exploration and production phases of the oil and gas industry with assignments in Alaska, Central and South America, lower 48, and offshore Gulf of Mexico. In 2000, he retired to operate his ranch in southern Comanche County.
